Hebrews 11 Faith Heroes
April 29, 2018 – Rahab

Last week we looked at the story of Noah, and saw that he could stand strong in his faith, doing something bigger than himself, through his righteousness, blamelessness, obedience, and his walk with God.

How's your ark-building going?

As we continue looking at these OT heroes, in Rahab we see that she as well could stand strong in her faith, but Noah's characteristics weren't hers at all. Rather, hers was a faith that was:

- 1) Personal – Joshua 2:11 with 6:22-25
She had seen God work, and it had made a difference to her personally.
- 2) Active – Joshua 2:15, 21
She did something about what she believed.
- 3) Courageous – Joshua 2:4,5
In her faith she was courageous in the face of imminent danger
- 4) Sensible – Joshua 2:6, 12
She continued to use the common sense she had been given.

We, too, need to have a faith that is personal, active, courageous and sensible, to stand strong.
