Journey to Bethlehem has been an integral part of the Christian Community for the past 21 years. Due to the uncertainty of the Covid-19 development, Journey to Bethlehem 2020 has been suspended. You can watch a short video clip that they have prepared by going to: <https://youtu.be/HISwkYm3u-U> Plans are already in the making for the 2021 production, where if required, this outdoor event will incorporate the Covid-19 restrictions. Operation Christmas Child

There are shoeboxes available in the foyer for you to take home and fill, as well as brochures, labels and the Top 100 list of items that can be included in the shoeboxes. If you would like to donate any items for shoebox contents for our OCC group to pack boxes, you can leave them in the black bin in the foyer. If you would like to donate to help with shipping costs towards the Chapel boxes, you can make cheques payable to Samaritan's Purse and put in the offering. Another option is to pack shoeboxes virtually online on the Operation Christmas Child website: www.samaritanspurse.ca

Youth Group

The start date is yet to be determined. More volunteers are needed!

The elders are encouraging and supporting Jared and Angelique deJong to develop a youth ministry leadership team. We hope to begin a youth ministry program on Friday nights starting in November that will include Awana Trek & Journey clubs. More details will follow. Please speak to Jared and Angelique with any questions you may have regarding youth ministry, or if you would like to help!
